PART I: INTRODUCTION

Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA) through the MQA Act 2007 (Act 679) has an on-going commitment in assisting individuals in utilizing their prior learning as much as possible. MQA assists in identifying learning that have taken place through various types of experiences throughout life that are not formally certified.

This process is called Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL) and was set under the Malaysian Qualifications Framework (MQF). APEL allows individuals to progress in the context of lifelong learning and widens the mobility of student participation and adult learners.

After the implementation of the APEL assessment to the public for the purpose of admissions to the Bachelor's programme (level 6, MQF) on the 1st September 2011, MQA continued to implement the APEL assessment for admissions to the Certificate and Diploma programs beginning on the 1st February 2013. Accordingly, the implementation of APEL will be extended for student admissions to the Master's program beginning on the 18th February 2014.

APEL in Malaysia is upheld by the following core principles:

- i. Prior experiential learning should be recognized regardless of how and where it was obtained, provided it is related to learning or a form of competency acquisition;
- ii. Assessment will be based on authentic, flexible, current and reliable evidence;
- iii. Assessment will be conducted by practitioners/experts in the subject, in the related field;
- iv. The method of assessment will be tailored to the level and experience of the learners, thus providing an opportunity for learners to demonstrate their acquired competencies;
- v. Decisions of APEL assessments should be transparent and subject to appeal and review;

- vi. Information and support services will be actively publicized, taking into account the diversity of the student; and
- vii. Quality assurance mechanisms should be clear and transparent.

PART II: APEL SCOPE

APEL is only offered to Malaysians seeking recognition of their prior learning. The APEL certification is an indication of the applicant's competencies and readiness to pursue a particular programme. However the certification does not guarantee admission into a Higher Education Provider (HEP). Applicants are still subjected to the procedures and additional requirements (if any) as determined by the HEP.

APEL certification can only be used for the purpose of applicants furthering their studies in the chosen field. It is not equivalent to the knowledge and competencies of a particular academic degree programme. The certification cannot be used for the purpose of seeking employment.

PART III: ENTRY REQUIREMENT FOR MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMME THROUGH APEL

Entry requirements for admission into the Master's program (level 7, MQF) through APEL as approved by the Ministry of Education (MOE). Applicants must be/have:

- i. a Malaysian citizen; and
- ii. at least 30 years of age in the year of application; and
- iii. at least STPM/Diploma/equivalent qualifications, and
- iv. relevant work experience.

PART IV: STUDENT COMPETENCY

The required competencies for the APEL assessment are guided by the MQF learning domains. Therefore the APEL assessments conducted by MQA aims to ensure that applicants will have the following competencies:

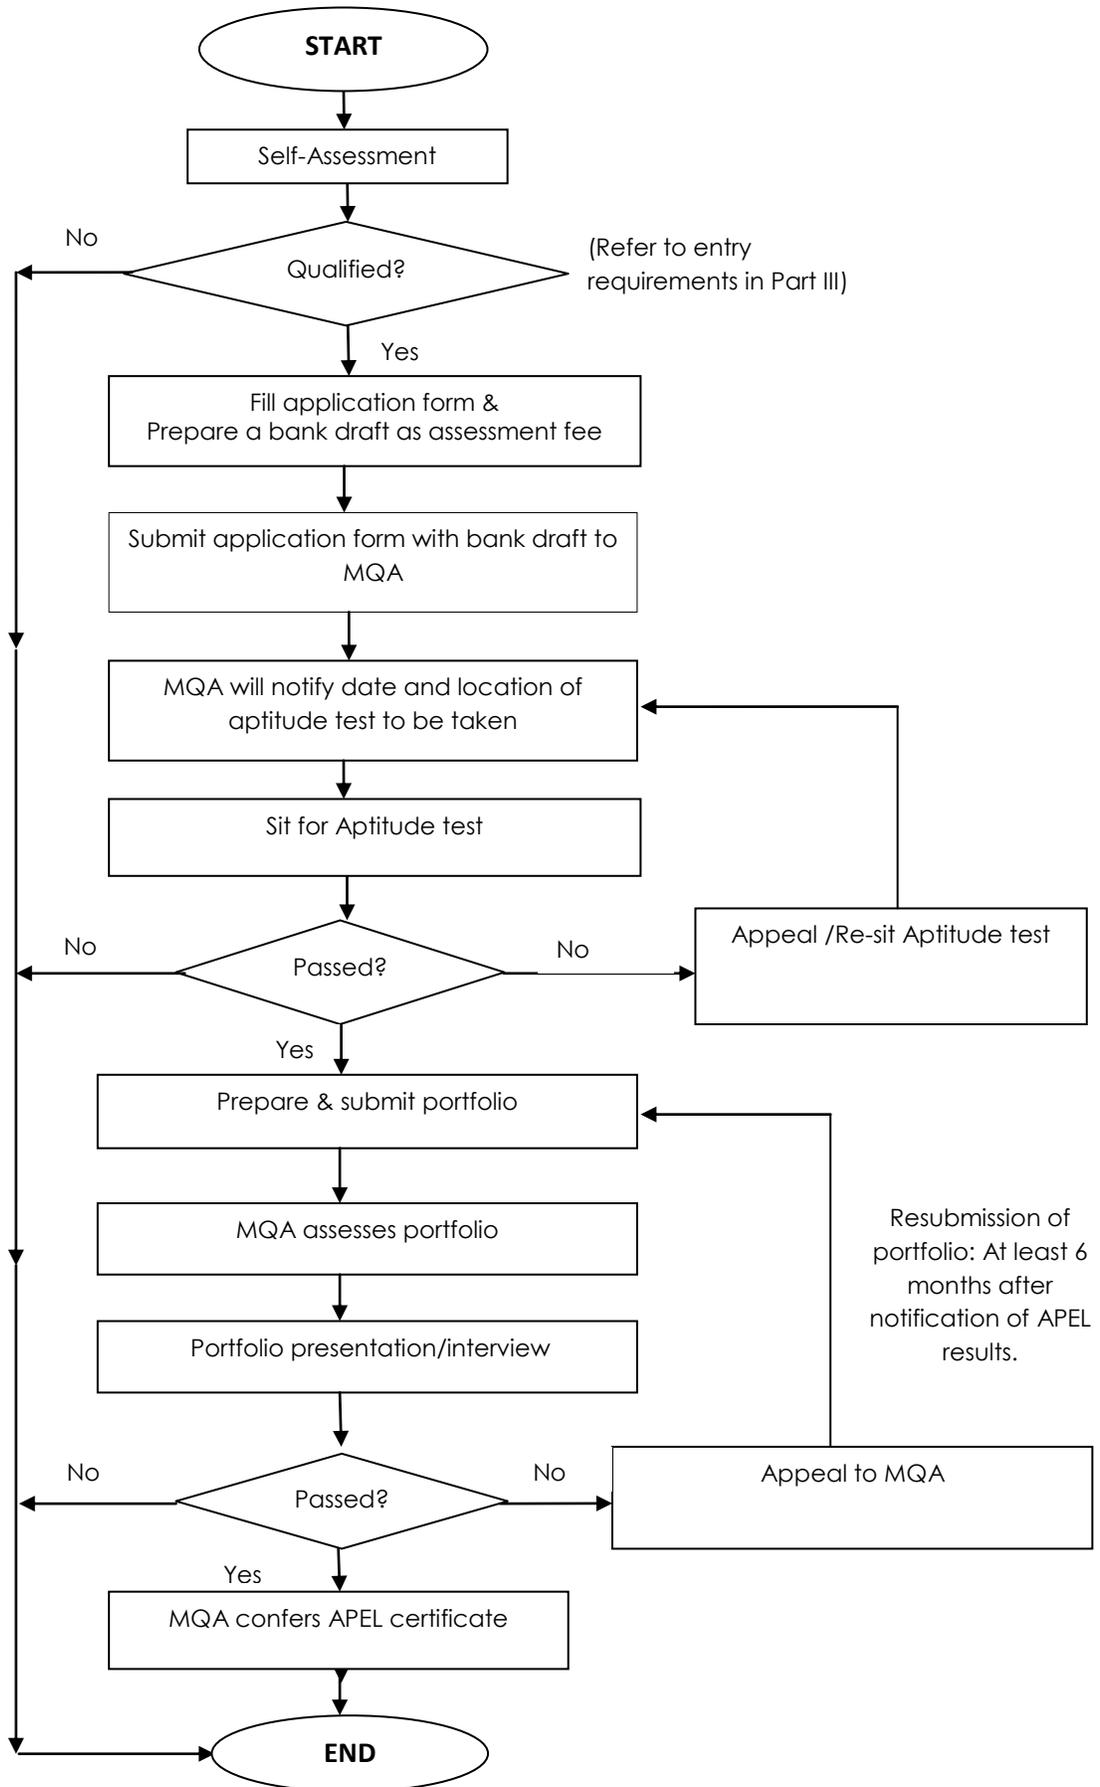

- i. knowledge;
- ii. practical skills;

- iii. skills and social responsibility;
- iv. values, attitudes and professionalism;
- v. communication skills, leadership and teamwork;
- vi. problem solving skills;
- vii. information management skills and lifelong learning; and
- viii. management and entrepreneurial skills.

PART V: APEL ASSESSMENT AND CERTIFICATION PROCESSES

APEL certification determines an applicant's eligibility to apply for admission into the Master's program at any public or private HEPs. Given the fact that APEL assessment processes may take as long as (involving the aptitude test, an interview and a portfolio assessment) 2 to 4 months, applicants are advised to apply for APEL certification well in advance of the date of admission into the desired HEPs.

NOTE

Self-Assessment:

In the beginning, applicants must first ensure that the basic entry requirements set by the Ministry of Education (see Part III) are met.

Apart from being a Malaysian, and meeting the age and academic qualification requirements, applicants must also assess the relevancy of their prior learning experience to the field of study.

It is important for the applicant's to understand the learning needs of the desired programme. If the applicant feels he has the potential to pursue a master's degree in the desired field and have met the basic requirements, the applicant may apply to be assessed through APEL.

Application process:

Applicants must complete an application form as shown in Appendix 1. The application form and the APEL assessment fee, in the form of a bank draft made payable to Agensi Kelayakan Malaysia should be submitted to the MQA.

The MQA will contact the applicant after receipt of the application form and the bank draft. Subsequently the date and location for taking the aptitude test will be set.

APEL assessment:

An Aptitude test is a formal examination which the applicant must pass. It is the first assessment and has a weightage of 40% of the total APEL assessment.

The purpose of the Aptitude test is to assess the applicant's competencies and readiness to pursue a master's programme. Aspects of assessment that will be tested include knowledge in Mathematics, English, Bahasa Malaysia and General

Knowledge/Critical Thinking. The table below provides an overview of the content and structure of the Aptitude test:

For experiential learning, applicants may submit evidence in the form of a testimony from an employer/client/colleague; job specifications, etc. (see Appendix 3).

The portfolio assessment carries a weightage of 60% of the total APEL assessment. Applicants are required to present their portfolio to a panel of assessors for the applicant's to explain the acquired learning in greater detail.

Applicants will be contacted by MQA to set the date of the portfolio presentation. The portfolio assessment process is expected to be completed within 30 working days from the date of submission.

APEL assessment results:

An official notification letter to inform the results will be issued to the applicant by MQA.

Applicants who have passed the APEL assessment (aptitude test and portfolio assessments) will be awarded the APEL certification which can be used to apply for admission into any of the HEPs in Malaysia.

Appeal of APEL result:

Applicants who have failed the aptitude test may appeal for a review of the results or apply for a re-sitting.

Applicants who have failed the portfolio assessment may resubmit the portfolio assessment. However, this re-submission can only be made at least 6 months after the date of notification of APEL results.
